K. D. Matthews Suits

A WORLD OF ELEGANCE
IN OUR
CLOAK AND SUIT DEPARTMENT.

THE BEAUTY OF OUR
MILLINERY SHOW ROOMS
IS UNSURPASSED.

We Welcome the Return of Our Many Patrons, Knowing the Pleasure They Will Experience in Visiting Our Various Departments, Each an Individual Store in Itself, Where We Are Showing the "Cream of Both Foreign and Domestic Markets."

Continuation of CLOTHING SALE.

We continue our sale this week of CLOTHING AT SMALL PROFIT. Case upon case of new goods have been added to the stock, making it complete in every detail; notwithstanding this, many of the lots are liable to be sold out after half a day's selling, as was the case on Monday last, so our advice is "BE AS EARLY AS POSSIBLE."

Men's Clothing.

Sack Suits at $6.85—Positively worth $10.00, the best of All Wool Fancy Mixed Cassimeres, handsome, dressy, well-made suits.
Sack Suits at $9.85—Good $12.50 value in these suits; right up to the minute in material and cut, plain colors and fancy mixtures.
Frock and Sack Suits at $11.95—The cutaway frock suits are of black undressed worsteds, black and gray diagonal, the backs are of checks and stripes in worsteds, cassimeres and chevrons, blue black and Oxford worsteds, flannels and meltons.
Men's Trousers—At $1.98, of handsome striped worsteds, dozens of different patterns, good $3.00 value, at $1.98.
At $2.98—Finer worsteds for dress wear, $4.50 under price.

Heavy-weight Clothes for Boys.

36,000 Yards of Rich Black Silks Below the Cost of Such Silks Anywhere.

Black Silks of standard makes, woven in the mills from which come the best black Silks in the world, are concerned in this most unusual sale. Every yard is of a sort that has proven its worth by actual wear, some are the Silks that in our grandmothers' time, as now, held chief place among rich and reliable fabrics. Such Silks as these know not the vagaries of fashion—they are as much a standard as sugar or flour, and their prices very little. Rarely, indeed, it is possible to price them as these are priced here to-morrow:

Bonnet Black Silks in This Silk Sale.

Messrs. Abraham and Straus,
Dear Sirs:
It gives us great pleasure to notify you that C. J. Bonnet & Cie. of Lyons are the only Dress Silk manufacturers who have been awarded the Grand Prize, the highest in the gift of the jury, at the Paris Exposition.
Yours truly, C. J. Bonnet & Cie.

Bonnet Silks were the best Silks of our grandmothers' time, the best Silks of our mothers' time, are the best Silks of our own time. They are sold in Brooklyn here exclusively. The oldest and best Silk house in the world naturally turns to the establishment which will give widest and best publicity to its choicest products. It is but natural, too, that the Bonnet Silks should capture the much coveted Grand Prix. The variety of these noble fabrics is as wide, perhaps wider, than it has ever been and their strength and worthiness have never been suffered to diminish by the slightest trifle.

A complete line of all the Bonnet weaves are included in this sale and these specials:
5,000 yards of C. J. Bonnet's High Lustre Black Taffeta, at...65c. a yard
3,500 yards of C. J. Bonnet's Double Faced Black Peau de Soie, at...70c. a yard
2,000 yards of C. J. Bonnet's Rich Black Satin Duchesse, at...90c. a yard
Main floor, New Building.

Fine All Wool Venetian Cloth.

98c. a yard—a Bargain.
There are Venetians—and Venetians. The best of them are rich and lustrous and handsome—used for the most dressy of the Autumn costumes and favorites above almost all other fabrics. Venetians of this sort, strictly all wool, with a beautifully finished face and in all the leading Fall shades will be here to-morrow for far the lowest price of such cloth anywhere. It was ordered many months ago, at lowest prices then. The mills have just finished making it and it is here at...98c. a yard
Main floor, New Building.

A Most Unusual Sale of Warm Underwear for Everyone.

Thousands of well fashioned Winter undergarments are concerned in this under-priced sale, garments of the best sort for much less than usual prices. Some few sizes are missing here and there, otherwise such low pricing would be impossible; but in the main there are garments to fit everyone. The store is a magnet just now—the snap in the air, the little prices here make preparation for colder weather wise.

For Men, Shirts and Drawers, cotton outside and wool fleece inside, soft, velvety, long and short sleeves, shaped and finished; sizes a bit below; natural under-priced at...30c.
Shirts and Drawers of half wool; natural color; long and short sleeves; 2 or 3 sizes missing; exceptional value at...50c.
Shirts and Drawers of three-fourths wool; just enough cotton to prevent shrinking without interfering with the warmth; perfectly finished and trimmed; all sizes...98c.
Shirts and Drawers of pure wool, white, natural and camel-hair colors; finely finished and perfectly shaped; soft and non-irritating...$1.25.
For Women, Undershirts, ribbed; fleece lined and shaped; trimmed with silk tapes; French hand; ankle length Drawers to match...10c.

ROW AMONG DENTAL EXAMINERS.

One Charged With Incompetency—Gov. Voorhees Hears Testimony.
ELIZABETH, N. J., Oct. 13.—Gov. Voorhees heard testimony today about a squabble in the New Jersey State Board of Dental Examiners. Drs. Adams, Barlow and Brown of the present board and Dr. Bosley of a former board heard the testimony. Dr. Charles A. Meeker of Newark, attacking his competency as an examiner. It was alleged that Dr. Meeker was slow in getting up papers for examination, that he sometimes forgot papers, and that he changed the marks Dr. Adams had made on a certain student's papers, with the remark, "Dr. Adams, I generally mark higher than you do, so I will mark 20 instead of 18."
Dr. Meeker stated at the hearing to-day that with two exceptions, April, 1898, and July, 1899, he had always passed in his papers. Dr. Meeker said that he had never confined himself closely to the text books, but gave credit if a practical knowledge of the subject was shown, even if it did not have the exact textbook answer.
Gov. Voorhees withheld his decision.
